

California Consumer Privacy Act Policy

Last Updated May 1, 2022

Mission Valley Bank (“MVB” or “we”) is committed to protecting the privacy of personal information of individuals. This California Consumer Privacy Statement (“Statement”) supplements the information contained in the MVB Privacy Policy and applies solely to individuals who are residents of the State of California (“consumers” or “you”). We adopt this Statement to comply with the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (CCPA), as amended. Any terms defined in the CCPA have the same meaning when we use them in this Statement.

We want you to understand what information we collect and how we use it. In addition, we want you to know about important rights you have under the CCPA in connection with your personal information. However, the rights described in this Statement do not apply to personal information that is either exempted from, or not covered by, the CCPA. For example, certain CCPA privacy rights may not apply to personal information that we collect or disclose in connection with providing personal, family or household financial services pursuant to the federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act or its implementing regulations, or to personal information of individuals who interact with us in their capacity as employees or agents of our commercial banking customers, business partners or service providers.
